Becky Herschbach has served as Executive Director of the Productive Living Board (PLB) since 2016, and has more than 30 years of experience in the non-profit, state, and local government sectors, working to empower people with developmental disabilities. In her current role, Becky provides strategic vision and leadership of PLB, including appropriating over $25 million in property tax dollars each year.

During her tenure at PLB, she helped form the Eastern Region Alliance, a partnership between four local taxing districts, which allows them to accomplish their missions more efficiently and effectively. She has also served as President of the Missouri Association of County Developmental Disabilities Services.

Prior to her time at PLB, Becky most recently held roles at United Way of Greater St. Louis, including Vice President of the Community Investment Division, where she helped design and lead the community investment process responsible for investing over $60 million in services each year. Earlier in her career, she served as a Service Coordinator for the Department of Mental Health Division of Developmental Disabilities and as a job coach with Life Skills (now Easterseals Midwest).

Each role has provided insight into the various perspectives – family, funder, advocate, service provider - that influence Becky's work today.
