

Partner Agency Grant Recipients January 2022 - June 30, 2022

Agency	Service
Down Syndrome Association of Greater St. Louis	$73,200 to renovate and expand program space.
Easterseals Midwest	$89,148 to re-establish volunteer sites for pre-employment and community-based programs and to partially support the LINK employment skills training program.
Family Advocacy and Community Training (F.A.C.T.)	$89,621 to provide educational advocacy.
MERS/Goodwill Industries	$7,085 to purchase computer equipment for Supported Employment staff.
	$78,109 for startup funding to create the curriculum for the Transitional Employment Academy.
OATS, Inc.	$100,000 to help secure transportation services so that individuals can continue to participate in needed services.
St. Louis Arc	$100,000 to replace windows at the Family Center.
The Center For Head Injury Services	$39,093 for multiple projects including record scanning, strategic planning, rebranding, and computer purchases.
UCP Heartland	$100,000 to assist with the cost of renovations and equipment for new office space.

Partner Agency Grant Recipients as of December 15, 2021

Agency	Service
Bridges Community Support Services	$12,360 to purchase guidebooks, online training, and staff time to implement the Skills System Development counseling service.
Epworth	$26,228 to purchase and assemble play therapy kits and sensory integration items for children and to provide therapeutic support groups for caregivers.
Great Circle	$37,826 to provide Board-Certified Behavior Analyst supervision for provisionally licensed Behavior Analysts in their school.
Jewish Community Center	$100,000 to construct and outfit a sensory room.
Lafayette Industries	$100,000 to purchase a digital data management system and a digital signage program.
LifeBridge Partnership	$58,740 to purchase an accessible vehicle.
Paraquad	$100,000 to restart a culinary skills training program.
Pathways to Independence	$23,400 to purchase new technology and provide professional development opportunities.
Promise Community Homes	$100,000 to replace a fire suppression system, electronic service panels, furnaces and air conditioning units in an apartment building.